SOUTH AFRICA'S FAST FOOD MARKET OUTLOOK

According to a study conducted by Allied Market Research, South Africa's fast food industry is expected to rise from a market value of $2.7 million dollars in 2018 to $4.9 million dollars in the year 2026. South Africa's fast food companies consider online platform to be a critical tool for their growth and promotion. With an increase in the number of internet uses, companies have stressed the importance of having a digital footprint in both advertising and online buying and selling platforms such as uber eats , Mr Delivery and online shopping store.

Platforms like Tiktok have made it easier and affordable for companies to reach their target market compared to traditional media such as radio, television and print media.
